

OLD TOWN
C A M P G R O U N D

Welcome to OTC

Thank you for selecting Old Town Campground as your RV camping accommodation choice. Enclosed in this Welcome Packet, you will find informative information including a campground map, details regarding TV channels and WiFi access, terms and conditions, specific rules relating to water and electric-only sites, as well as local points of interest.

Check-in is available between 11:30 am and 5 pm, and we kindly request that you arrive within these hours. If, for any reason, you are unable to meet this timeframe, please do not hesitate to contact us. Our on-duty hours close promptly at 6 pm, and our staff may not be available to assist with backing in and setting up your camper if you require any assistance. While we will do our utmost to accommodate your needs, we greatly appreciate your cooperation in adhering to the designated check-in times or notifying us in advance.

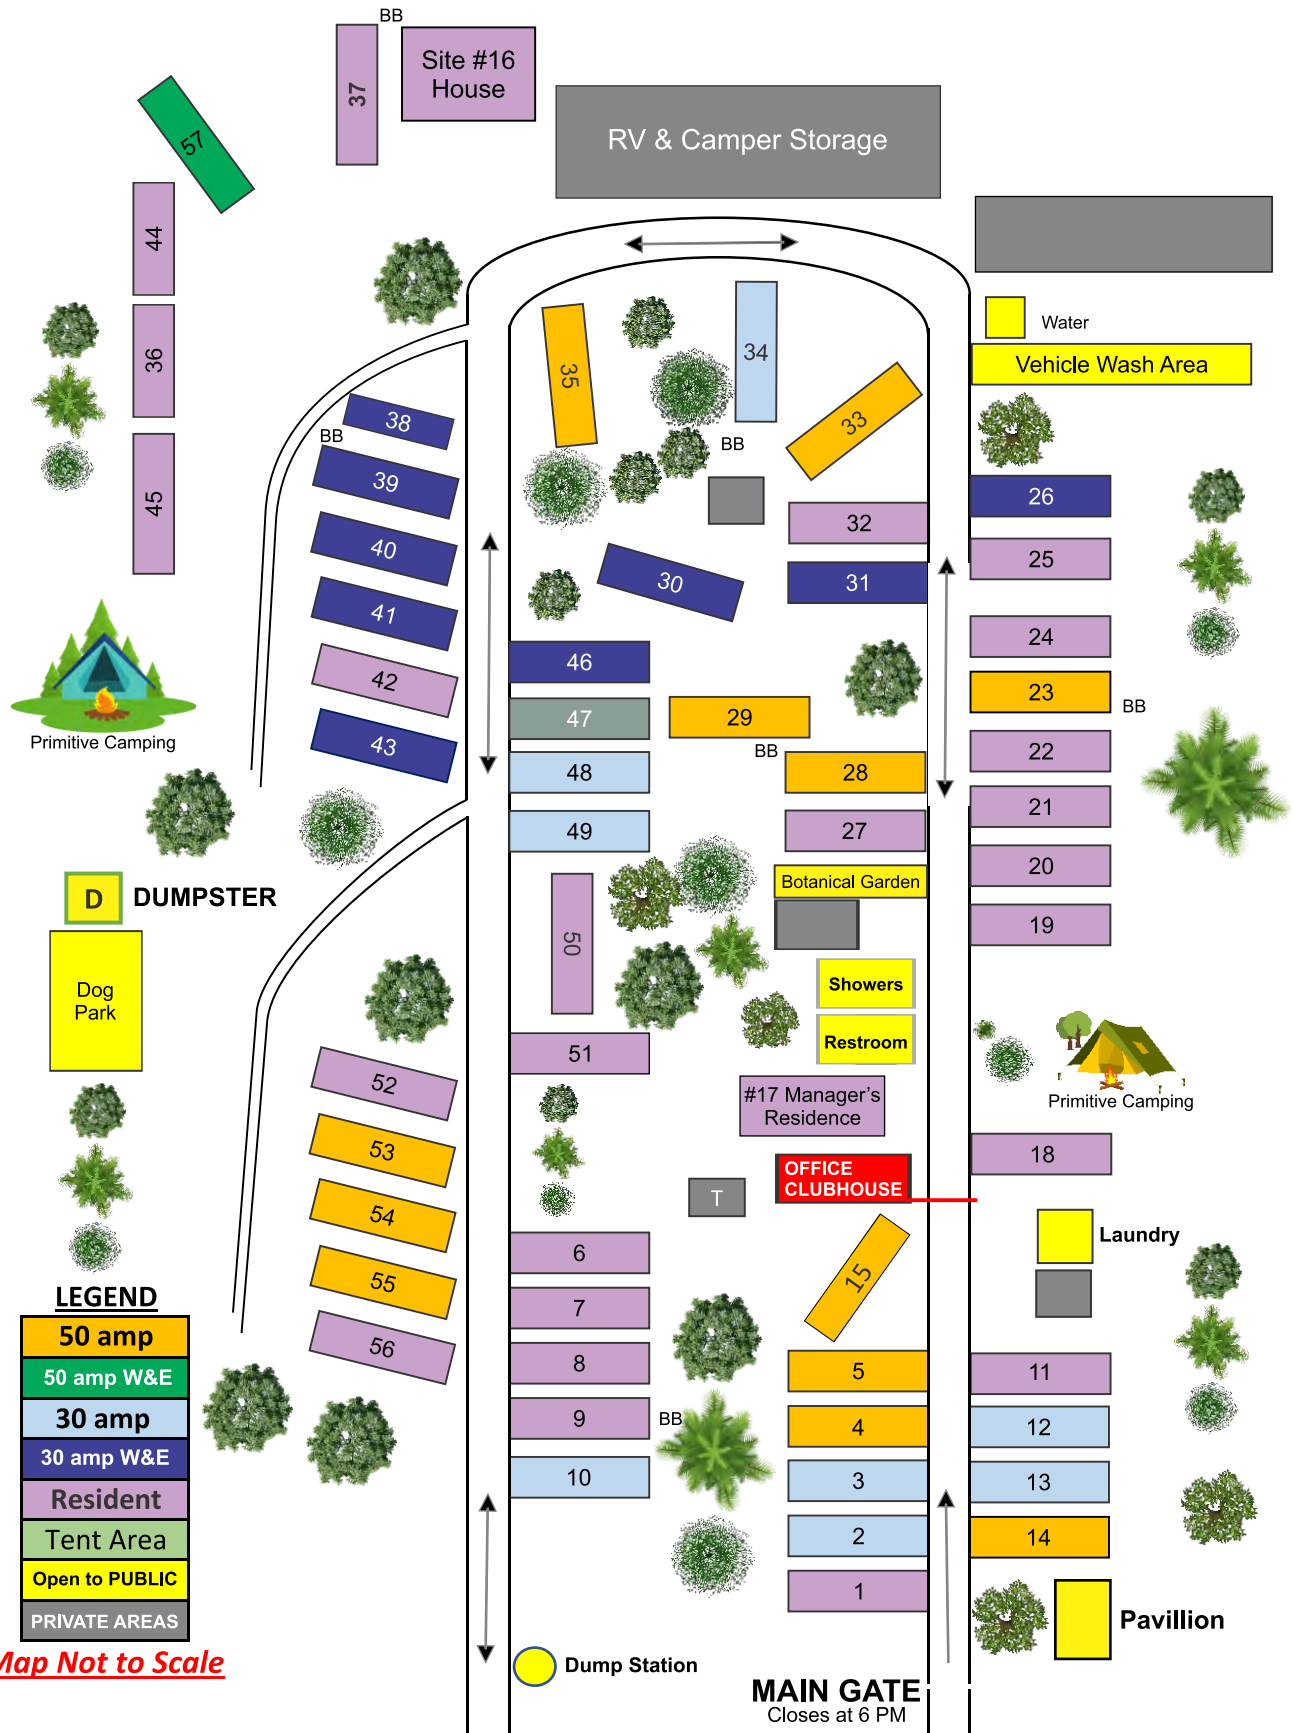

For TV hookup, please locate the male screw at the bottom of the thinner gray box and securely attach your coaxial cable.

If your stay extends for one month or longer, we kindly request that you either take a picture of your electric meter or record the reading for us. This will enable us to accurately calculate your electric usage, which will be due at the end of the month. If you are staying for multiple months, the amount will be added to your subsequent month's bill. Alternatively, if you plan to depart after one month, please ensure that the electric bill and other additional charges are settled before your departure. If they are not, we will charge your on-file card for those charges.

We are pleased to offer a "take 1, leave 1" library located in our office and clubhouse area, available for your enjoyment. The office / clubhouse is open 24 hours a day, and we kindly request that you close the door and switch off any lights, TV, and adjust the AC to 85 degrees (if applicable) when leaving the premises. Additionally, a TV, couch, and table are provided for your relaxation or for socializing with fellow guests. We kindly ask that you maintain cleanliness and tidiness after each use.

Mail and packages can be collected from the office and clubhouse area from Monday to Saturday.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us 352-542-9500, otcreservations@gmail.com and we will do our best to answer your questions as soon as possible.

How to properly dispose of dishwater – Water & Electric Sites Only

In the state of Florida, dishwater is considered black water.

AE453/AE453: Gray Water Reuse in Florida \(ufl.edu\)

WHAT IS GRAY WATER?

Graywater, greywater, gray water, or grey water are all terms that have the same meaning and are the terms used to describe household wastewater that does not contain human waste or a high amount of organic material. This definition is consistent with both the International Plumbing Code and the Florida Building Code.

Gray water typically includes water from baths, showers, clothes washers, laundry trays, and sinks, but excludes wastewater from kitchen sinks.

Wastewater from toilets, urinals, and kitchen drains is considered blackwater and must be connected to a public sewer or an onsite sewage and treatment disposal system. It is important to properly dispose of dishwater by avoiding the inclusion of solid food waste, paper towels, human waste, or excessive toilet paper.

Failure to do so can lead to septic tank backups and potential damage, resulting in consequences such as rules violations, financial responsibility for repairs, and even eviction. When disposing of dishwater, OTC requires you to use dump stations or toilets, following the provided instructions.

Dump stations are located behind the showers and before the exit. Remember, too much toilet paper will clog toilets. No paper towels or wipes are allowed down the toilets and dump stations. The consequence of failing to follow these rules is a charge of $275 – $325.

Guest Wi-Fi Acceptable Use Policy:

We are offering this guest WiFi wireless Internet service (the “Service”) according to this Guest WiFi Wireless Networking Acceptable Use Policy (the “Policy”) as a free, non-public service to its visitors for the duration of their official visits. We do not guarantee the Service or specific rates of speed. We also have no control over information obtained through the Internet and cannot be held responsible for its content or accuracy. Use of the service is subject to the user's own risk. We reserve the right to remove, block, filter, or restrict by any other means any material that, in our sole discretion, may be illegal, may subject us to liability, or may violate this Policy. We may cooperate with legal authorities and/or third parties in the investigation of any suspected or alleged crime or civil wrong. Violations of this Policy may result in the suspension or termination of access to the Service or other resources, or other actions as detailed below.

Responsibilities of Service Users: Users are responsible for ensuring they are running up-to-date anti-virus software on their wireless devices. Users must be aware that, as they connect their devices to the Internet through the Service, they expose their devices to: worms, viruses, Trojan horses, denial-of-service attacks, intrusions, packet-sniffing, and other abuses by thirdparties. Users must respect all copyrights. Downloading or sharing copyrighted materials is strictly prohibited. The running of programs, services, systems, processes, or servers by a single user or group of users that may substantially degrade network performance or accessibility will not be allowed. Electronic chain letters and mail bombs are prohibited. Connecting to "Peer to Peer" file sharing networks or downloading large files, such as CD ISO images, is also prohibited. Accessing another person's computer, computer account, files, or data without permission is prohibited. Attempting to circumvent or subvert system or network security measures is prohibited. Creating or running programs that are designed to identify security loopholes, to decrypt intentionally secured data, or to gain unauthorized access to any system is prohibited. Using any means to decode or otherwise obtain restricted passwords or access control information is prohibited. Forging the identity of a user or machine in an electronic communication is prohibited. Saturating network or computer resources to the exclusion of another's use, for example, by overloading the network with traffic such as emails or legitimate (file backup or archive) or malicious (denial of service attack) activity, is prohibited. Users understand that wireless Internet access is inherently not secure, and users should adopt appropriate security measures when using the Service. We highly discourage users from conducting confidential transactions (such as online banking, credit card transactions, etc.) over any wireless network, including this Service. Users are responsible for the security of their own devices.

Limitations of Wireless Network Access: We are not liable for any damage, undesired resource usage, or detrimental effects that may occur to a user's device and/or software while the user's device is attached to the Service. The user is responsible for any actions taken from his or her device, whether intentional or unintentional, that damage or otherwise affect other devices or users of the Service. The user hereby releases the Company from liability for any loss, damage, security infringement, or injury which the user may sustain as a result of being allowed access to the Service. The user agrees to be solely responsible for any such loss, infringement, damage, or injury.

Terms of Service: By clicking the accept button, below, the user agrees to comply with and to be legally bound by the terms of this Policy. If this Policy or any terms of the Service are unacceptable or become unacceptable to the user, the users only right shall be to terminate his or her use of the Service.

Lawful Use: The Service may only be used for lawful purposes and in a manner which we believe to be consistent with the rights of other users. The Service shall not be used in a manner which would violate any law or infringe any copyright, trademark, trade secret, right of publicity, privacy right, or any other right of any person or entity. The Service shall not be used for the purpose of accessing, transmitting, or storing material, which is considered obscene, libelous or defamatory. Illegal acts may subject users to prosecution by local, state, federal, or international authorities. We may bring legal action to enjoin violations of this Policy and/or to collect damages, if any, caused by violations.

The user specifically agrees to the following conditions: The user will use the Service only as permitted by applicable local, state, federal, and international laws. The user will refrain from any actions that we consider to be negligent or malicious. The user will not send email containing viruses or other malicious or damaging software. The user will run appropriate anti-virus software to remove such damaging software from his or her computer. The user will not access web sites which contain material that is grossly offensive to us, including clear expressions of bigotry, racism, or hatred. The user will not access web sites which contain material that defames, abuses, or threatens others.

Changes to Service: We reserve the right to change the Service offered, the features of the Service offered, the terms of this Policy, or its system without notice to the user.
